Hi (b)(6), (b)(7)(C)

As far as we know, you were only required to complete Collection Review 101 training (which you did over the weekend). However, we're pleasantly surprised to see that you've decided to continue on to the full-length Babel Basics training.

We see that you have completed all of the video modules for Babel Basics training. The last part is to complete the training exercises. I've attached the step-by-step workbook to guide you through these exercises and have provided you credentials to the training environment account where the exercises need to be completed.

Good Morning,

We're reviewing the agenda for the FY20 classes to make adjustments and I'm wondering whether there's any indication of whether a sufficient number of licenses will be available to continue the Babel Street training?

If I understand the current plan, students will have a 60-day trial in which time their usage will be assessed. If they don't use it, they lose it.

Good Afternoon All,

My apologies for this very delayed message but I do want to thank you for helping us rollout what has been a successful (b)(7)(E) training course last month. The students were quite appreciative of the knowledge they received, particularly since the instructors were subject matter experts for the lessons taught and were able to easily field a variety of questions.

Based on student evaluations, the general consensus was very positive and indicated that we are on the right path. Their feedback guided a few minor adjustments for future sessions and we are hopeful that our August and September sessions will be even more productive. In the coming days, I'll be reaching out to request your continued support and availability to provide training during our next two sessions.

We couldn't have accomplished this goal without you. Thank you again!

I also wanted to ask, if it's not too late, to bring along one of my guys to assist with the hands-on portion of the class. here's his information:

Good Morning,

We're reviewing the agenda for the FY20 classes to make adjustments and I'm wondering whether there's any indication of whether a sufficient number of licenses will be available to continue the Babel Street training?

If I understand the current plan, students will have a 60-day trial in which time their usage will be assessed. If they don't use it, they lose it. (b)(7)(E)

(b)(7)(E) Also, do you see this continuing for the FY20 classes?

Appreciate any insight that may assist with planning for the next four classes. Thank you!

I also wanted to ask, if it's not too late, to bring along one of my guys to assist with the hands-on portion of the class. here's his information:

Good Afternoon All,

My apologies for this very delayed message but I do want to thank you for helping us rollout what has been a successful (b)(7)(E) training course last month. The students were quite appreciative of the knowledge they received, particularly since the instructors were subject matter experts for the lessons taught and were able to easily field a variety of questions.

Based on student evaluations, the general consensus was very positive and indicated that we are on the right path. Their feedback guided a few minor adjustments for future sessions and we are hopeful that our August and September sessions will be even more productive. In the coming days, I'll be reaching out to request your continued support and availability to provide training during our next two sessions.

We couldn't have accomplished this goal without you. Thank you again!

Hello (b)(6)

It has been a while since my training in Orlando with the entire gang. I learned a lot and could continue picking some of your knowledge. That 1 on 1 or group virtual sessions would be awesome! I can say Babel street has been a phenomenal tool alongside my targeting skills.

Of course, I would love to continue to be proficient with the latest and existing features. Our team in The Tampa Field office has seen the things I have come up with using Babel Street. AWESOME!

If we can come up with a virtual class to benefit our (b)(7)(E) PAU skills we are all for it. Please let me know This would be a great idea. I Tried to reach you but it went straight to voice mail. Hope we can coordinate something without any issues.

Thank you for reaching out

Subject: (b)(7)(E) in Babel X (Session 2) Credentials

Hello!

You are scheduled to attend (b)(7)(E) in Babel X, Session 2 (of 2) on October 14th 1:00pm to 4:00pm EST. This is the second 3-hour session of the full course, (b)(7)(E) in Babel X.

Attached to this email is the course workbook which will be used in class, you are welcome to print this if you would like.

Your training user credentials are listed below that will be used in class (b)(7)(E)

(b)(7)(E)

This course will be taught via WebEx, just like Session 1. If you are in anyway unsure how to access the class, please see the attached (b)(7)(E)

(b)(7)(E) document which provides two easy methods. If you have any trouble, please reach out to me directly for assistance.

(b)(6), (b)(7)(C), (b)(7)(E)

Finally, a few recommendations that may improve your experience in the class. (These are NOT requirements, but are often helpful to learners.)

- If this is your first instructor –led course with Babel University and/or Webex, try to login 5-10 minutes before the class starts to ensure you get in on time. Webex REQUIRES a download the first time it is used on your computer. If you have any issues contact (b)(6)@babelstreet.com.
- If possible, take the course in a place where you have two monitors. This can enable you to more easily watch demonstrations while following along if you so choose.
- This course has a great deal of discussion and hands-on practice. If you choose to call-in via computer, a headset with a microphone often helps make communication easier (or attend the training from a quiet area).
- If you have any questions or trouble, please let your instructor know! We are here to help you and want this to be the best experience possible.

Thank You!
